LOCAL NEWS.

—G. T. Ingram was in Memphis

this week.

—Capt. R. H. Wood is back from Nashville.

—Quarterly court convenes next Monday.

—Use W. A. Ross' lumber for building purposes.

—Mr. Will Mercer is visiting relatives at Mercer, Tenn.

—Miss Alice Hardaway returned from Medon Monday.

—Mr. Edgar Wilkinson, of Jackson, was in town Monday.

—T. R. Hooper don't advertise scrib stock—he is a thirteen pound boy.

—Mr. J. A. Wilson leaves to day for Nashville, Louisville and other eastern cities.

—Mrs. Lou Coleman and her bright little daughter, Miss Fannie, have gone to Nashville.

—Tom Newbern, the live butcher of Bolivar, ordered 150 pounds of red snapper for this market yesterday.

—Mr. W. D. Mauldin a prominent citizen of Grand Junction spent Tuesday in Bolivar on business.

—The crops of grass, clover and wheat were never more promising in this county. The pity is that so little has been sown.

—Messrs. Will Newbern, E. P.

McNeal and John Bills visited Milan this week to look at some fine stock go they said.

—Mrs. Jane Warren, accompanied by her little granddaughter, Janie Campbell, has returned from a visit at Collierville, Miss.

—Dr. Moore has fallen through another bridge. "How long, oh!

how long will it be before the court looks into this matter?" the doctor asks.

—Captain Albert McNeal visited

Nashville Monday. He was accompanied by his son, Albert, who will enter the University at Sewanee.

—Capt. Jan. R. McKinnie, a wealthy planter and capitalist of Hickory Valley, was mixing among —Misses Westbrook and Williams, of Newbern, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Will B.

Williams, returned to their home

Monday morning after a pleasant visit of a few days. These young ladies made many friends who will be glad to welcome them back.

—Mr. John Norment, who has been connected with the Illinois Central Road as freight conductor between Jackson and Cairo, has accepted a position as salesman with

G. T. Ingram & Co. Mr. Norment has acted in this capacity before and understands the business.

—Wild turkey hunting has afforded rare sport to some of our local experts. Mr. A. J. Coates killed two fine gobblers in Hatchie bottom last week and Capt. Morg. Moore one. They weighed from fourteen to sixteen pounds each. It would seem a pity to shoot the hens at this breeding season.

—Miss Mary Franklin, daughter of Jesse H. Franklin Esq., has been elected to assist Miss Staufferback at Franklin Institute. The attendance has so increased at this excellent school that the directors were compelled to provide additional help, and they wisely selected Miss Franklin who is a bright, well educated girl.

—Mr. Austin Miller received a telegram Wednesday from his brother,

Hon. C. A. Miller, stating that the bill appropriating $65,000 for the completion of the Asylum had passed the House. It would have been an open shame to defeat the bill at this time, when there are hundreds of insane people in the county jails in this part of the state.

—A splendid half mile track has been laid off at Grand Junction for the purpose of having a stock show and races this spring. We hope this will lead to a fair this fall.

There is nothing that will offer so many inducements for the raising of fine stock, and when premiums are offered in the agricultural department that branch of farming will not be improved. Nearly all the other counties around us have fairs and why can't we have one in Har-denman?

—A BULLDOG man had the pleasure of walking through Barrett

Bros' mammoth store this week and the display of goods is beautiful and attractive. Both floors of the building are crowded to their utmost capacity, and five salesmen are kept as busy as bees. They have a shelf after shelf loaded with handsome dress goods, prints, giv-ings, hams, white goods, etc. They have shoes enough to furnish Har-denman and of all shapes, styles and sizes. It is certainly worth your while to go there. The store is decorated with rare taste, and the beauty of the clerks is proverbial.

The beauty of the whole business is the extremely low prices at which these goods are sold.

—The spring races of the Tipton

County Stock Breeders' Association will take place on Friday and Saturday, May 17th and 18th at Covington. The purses offered are liberal, and those who have fine stock in Harnden are invited to participate. Mr. John R. Sloan is secretary of the Association and will take pleasure in giving any information desired. Mr. D. W. Rof-fin, the president, has charge of the stables at which are quartered fifteen or twenty head of fine horses, under the care of an experienced trainer, preparatory to entering the coming races. His charges are moderate and the best of care will be taken. The horseman who has

BARRETT BROS!

TO THE

Ladies of Bolivar and Harnden Co.

We wish to make the statement that we have spent several weeks making up our lists and in the eastern markets buying goods for the spring trade, and now we can safely say that we have the handsome line of DRESS GOODS,

SUCH AS HENRETTAS, ALBA-

TROSES, SERGES, BATTIE in all the latest styles, grades and prices from 10c. to $1.50 per Yard.

We are carrying this season a very handsome line of India and Surrah Silks,
